Rules and Guidelines

- Do not leave the retreat grounds.
  - Be at all activities on time and with a smile.
  - When we are together as a group, we will do things as a group.
  - Report any injuries immediately to a leader.
  - Your body only belongs in your bunk house area.
- Do not touch anything that does not belong to you.
  - You should not have a cell phone, gaming device, ipad, DVD player, MP3 player, or any other electrical device at anytime. Cell phones are allowed to make emergency calls to parents, no texting or talking to friends.
  - Be positive, be polite, be encouraging.
  - No alcohol, tobacco products, fireworks, or anything that is not in keeping with our Christian values.
  - Modest clothing should be worn at all times.
  - While on the bus, lying or sitting on anyone else will be prohibited.
  - The leaders are here for a reason: because they love you and they want you to be safe. You must be willing to listen to their instructions in order to be a part of this trip. They are to be feared, respected, and obeyed.
  - Camp quiet time is from 10:30 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. Please respect those around you, including any other groups that may be sharing the facility or campground, the resident camp staff and their families, and those in your group.
  - Misuse or abuse of camp equipment and/or facilities resulting in damage is the responsibility of the individual.
  - We reserve the right to send someone home at any time if they cannot follow the rules.
